Mid Day Meal Programme Annual Work Plan and Budget 2020-21

1. Introduction:

1.1 Brief history

The Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and was born on 17th December 1779 as a result of a treaty between Portuguese and the Marathas .There Marathas were the rulers of this territory before it came under Portuguese rule. In 1779, a treaty was signed between the Marathas and the Portuguese which allowed the later to collect revenues from Dadra and Nagar Havel There were 72 villages in DNH which were known as parganas.

The treaty was only made for the collection of revenues in compensation for their loss of a warship called 'Santana' which had earlier been captured by the Marathas but not surrendered to the Portuguese in spite of their many entreaties. But subsequently instead of collecting only the revenues from the region the whole territory came under the clutch of Portuguese. Their supremacy over the land continued for more than 150 years.

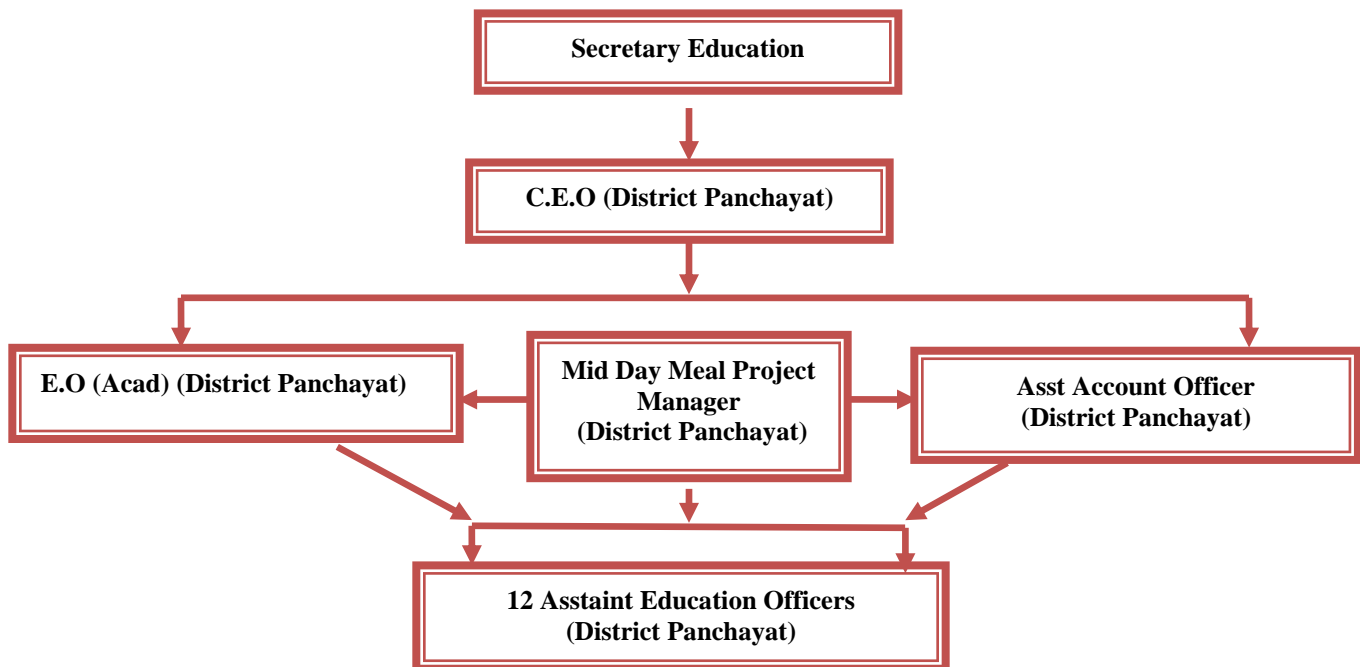

India became independent in 1947 and the reorganization movement of several princely states and colonies was carried out by major political leaders. The Indian nationalist volunteers liberated Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu only in July 1954 and a pro-India administration was formed. This land was made a centrally administered union territory with effect from August 11, 1961 by an amendment in the Indian Constitution. The territory came to be known as Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu

The main occupation of Tribal people is agriculture but due to rapid growth of Industrial development in this UT about 45850 persons are employed in about 45850 persons are employed in about 3000 industrial units which are functioning at present. The main festivals are Holi and Diwali .The Union Territory has one Parliamentary Constitution single constituency of Member of Parliament of this U.T. The territory is surrounded by Valsad district of Gujarat on West North and east and by Thane District Of Maharashtra on South & Southern East .It is hilly on the northeast and East parts of the territory surrounded by ranges of Sahyadri mountains (Western Ghats) .The terrain is Intersected by the River Daman Ganga and it three Tributaries. The territory receives an annual rainfall between 2000 to 2500 mm.The nearest Railway station is Vapi, which is about 18 Kms from Silvassa. The U.T. is linked with national Highway No.8
